OHIO JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE 64TH STATE CONVENTION MARCH 7TH - 9TH 2014

Ovid's Metamorphoses XV: 165

"OMNIA MUTANTUR, NIHIL INTERIT"

Everything Changes, Nothing Perishes

Letter From OJCL President

Tino Delamerced, Summit CDS

Carissimi OJCers (Dearest OJCers),

You're reading this letter. That means you're at convention. PLEASE TELL ME WHY YOU ARE READING A LETTER AT CONVENTION.

Anyway, my name's Tino Delamerced, and I'm from Summit! I'm your President for the next couple days, which I sincerely hope will make up one of the most fun and memorable weekends of your life. There's a dance, and there's a talent show, and there's a whole bunch of competitions, and there are so many awesome people – seriously! Venture out into one of the hallways; strike up a conversation with someone; and be amazed by how amazing and friendly everyone here is.

I first came to the Ramada Plaza Hotel as a seventh grader, skeptical and naïve, a kid who didn't think attending a Latin convention was "cool." Long story short: sort of like how the theme "Omnia mutantur, nihil interit" states, convention never went away, but my skepticism did. Convention and its attendees were always there for me, and in a short while, I realized that the OJCL was truly something to cherish and to love. Meeting the kindest, funniest, most imaginative, smartest, and "coolest" people made me want to return to the Ramada year after year. 5 years later, I'm the OJCL President, and once I go away for college, I'm totally going to miss going to convention.

I'll tell you this: convention happens only once a year. And some of these people here – you might see them only once a year. So, go sing "Bohemian Rhapsody" with a random group of strangers while waiting for a test session to start, or strike up a conversation about "Sherlock" with a new friend (with whom you can lament the fact that the show only gives us three episodes per year), or attend the talent show ("JCL's Got Talent!") or the Certamen matches or the dance, but above all, STOP READING THIS LETTER. GO MEET EXCELLENT PEOPLE, AND HAVE AN AMAZING WEEKEND.

Deuces.

JCLove,

Pres. Tino Delamerced

Convention Rules

Each Student is expected to conduct his/her self in a mature and responsible manner during Convention. The first person who is responsible for your conduct is you. Everyone is encouraged to have a good time and enjoy the experience, so we ask that you refrain from behavior that will prevent others around you from enjoying their time at Convention too! Simply said, attendance is a privilege, not a right. In extreme cases, if an individual's or group's behavior is deemed to be unacceptable, OJCL reserves the right to require that the offender(s) return home at their own expense.

Rules and expectations that each Convention Attendee shall observe:

1. Curfew for Student Delegates is 12:30 A.M. and may be enforced by ANY Sponsor, Chaperone, or Hotel Staff Member. All Students (except Executive Board Officers) shall be in - and stay in - their respective assigned rooms after that time.
2. Delegates are not permitted to change rooms without the prior consent of BOTH their Sponsor and State Chair Bryan Inderhees
3. Delegates are reminded that ALL Sponsors, SCLers, and Chaperones serve as monitors during the Convention on behalf of OJCL, and each Delegate shall show respect for them and comply with their instructions.
4. Behavior that disturbs other guests will not be tolerated. Delegates should remember that they are representing OJCL, their school, and youth in general.
5. Use or possession by any Convention Delegate of alcohol, drugs, or mind-altering substances defined as illegal by the State of Ohio is prohibited.
6. Any illegal activity, including gambling (but not limited to), lotteries, betting activities for profit, or other activity in violation of Local, State, or Federal Laws will be reported to the local Authorities and School Officials.
7. There shall be no smoking by Student Delegates during Convention. (We ask any Adult who chooses to smoke to do so in designated smoking areas or to refrain in general.)
8. Students are not permitted in the hotel bar.
9. General Assembly Attendance is mandatory for all Delegates, including commuters unless otherwise indicated in the Program.
10. Only persons attending Convention may participate in contests or Convention activities of any kind.
11. Nametags issued at registration shall be worn visibly at all times. You will not be permitted to participate in a TEST or CONTEST or other events without your nametag clearly visible (Costume Contest competitors must have their tags with them and wear them when not being judged for competition.)

Convention Rules

12. Students having access to vehicles at Convention is STRONGLY discouraged. Any student who drives his or her own car to Convention must have written permission from both Sponsor and Parent to drive and/or leave the hotel premises during Convention. Students riding in a vehicle driven by a student MUST have written consent of BOTH their Sponsor and Parent to ride in the specific vehicle. Sponsors are highly encouraged to collect car keys.
13. Neat school clothes are appropriate attire for everyone. Classical costumes are required for the Roman Banquet. Dressing in hotel sheets is not permitted.
14. Make all outside phone calls (even local calls) on pay phones located in lobby or personal cell phone.
15. Use masking tape to hang campaign posters; no tacks allowed. OJCL reserves the right to review any and all campaign material prior to its being displayed. Inappropriate or slanderous materials will not be permitted.
16. NO SIGNS or CAMPAIGN MATERIALS MAY BE HUNG IN THE ELEVATORS!
17. Any missing or damaged articles/property will be charged to your chapter and ultimately to you. Any additional charges to your room will be charged to your school.
18. During testing sessions, you may not sit adjacent to individuals with the same color nametag as your own. You SHALL NOT request assistance from a Sponsor/Chaperone from your Club.
19. Officers and those assisting the OJCL Officers are not responsible for individual attendee's actions and are not responsible for damages related to those actions by individual attendees. Payment of Convention Fees is acknowledgment of acceptance and understanding of these rules by each attendee and constitutes a waiver of claim against the Organization and its Officers including State Chairs and their appointed assistants.

The Junior Classical League Creed

We the members of the Junior Classical League,

Covenant to hand on the torch

Of classical civilization in the modern world.

We believe an acquaintance with the civilization

Of Greece and Rome will help us

To understand and appraise this world of today,

Which is indebted to the ancient civilization in its
Government and laws, literature, language and arts.

We affirm the JCL experience

Develops responsibility, fosters brotherhood,

Promotes enthusiasm, encourages competition,

Inspires dedication and enriches our total growth.

The Junior Classical League Song

Seeking the best, the highest our goal,

Working for greatness through glories of old.

Searching the realms of the golden past,

We follow the classics' truths that last.

In knowledge, truth, and fellowship,

We're growing everyday.

The friendly hand of J. C. L. aids in every way.

In Rome's proud steps we're marching on,
with every true colleague,

And for ever we'll hold to the Purple and Gold,

Of the Junior Classical League.

The Pledge Of Allegiance In Latin

Fidem meam obligo
vexillo civitatum
Americae foederatarum et rei publicae pro qua stat
uni natione deo ducente
non dividendae
cum libertate iustitiaque omnibus

The Pledge Of Allegiance In Greek

ὑπισχνούμαι πίστιν τῷ σημείῳ τῶν Ἡνωμένων Πολιτειῶν
τῆς Ἀμερικῆς καὶ τῇ δημοκρατίᾳ ἣν νοεῖ, ἐνὶ πόλει, ἀμερίστη, αὐτονομία καὶ δικαιοσύνη πᾶσιν.

Colloquia Information

Beyond JCL: Classics in College

Lindsay Pappas

Come and learn about studying Classics at the collegiate level, the benefits of majoring in Classics, and what to do with a Classics degree after college.

Classics in the Movies

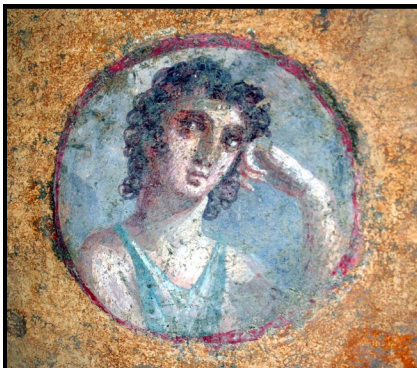

Parliamentarian Will Emery and Treasurer Narayan Sundararajan

Do you talk during movies? Do you constantly pepper your friends with references to Greece and Rome? Then join "Classics in the Movies" and explore the role of ancient culture in modern cinema through enjoying clips and cracking wise.

Music in the Classics

SE/CE Gubernator Henry Bacha

Mythology and rock music have a long relationship with each other as evidenced by lyrical allusions and stage personas throughout the 20th Century. We'll explore works by the Doors, Led Zeppelin, Bob Dylan and more.

Frescoes: Learn, Then Make!

Learn about ancient frescoes, and then make one yourself! Dr. Janette Knowles and graduate students from Ohio Dominican University will teach you about ancient frescoes and then help you to create your own 'magnum opus.'

"EVERYTHING CHANGES, NOTHING PERISHES"

"Everything changes, nothing perishes."

There is no greater demonstration of this quote than Rome herself. Despite the "death" of the Latin language, classical civilization has perpetuated itself in our society today. From the dome, arch, and column, to inventions such as the aqueduct, calendar, and road, to influences on art and government—Rome has proved that her spirit is still alive and thriving. Although the ancient empire collapsed long ago, Rome's ideals persist. Adapted into modern society, they are living proof of Ovid's quote.
