

NJCL T-Shirt Design Contest

May 20 - June 20 2017

We are seeking the best designs from across the state of Ohio to help design this year's shirt for Nationals at Troy University! Enter for the opportunity to see your own design on our state t-shirt!

Guidelines:

- All shirts must be short-sleeved with text/images on both sides (as further outlined below). Please use the Gildan 100% Cotton T-shirt option (it's the cheapest one).
- T-shirts MUST be school-appropriate!
- T-shirts MUST NOT have any obscene language, imagery, or innuendos. We reserve the right to reject any submissions if we feel as if they are too suggestive.
- Designs MUST NOT have any copyrighted material.
- Designs MUST be made on CustomInk.com.
- Each design MUST INCLUDE the following:
 - The NJCL Convention Theme, both in Latin and in English - Omnis ars naturae imitatio est. ("All art is but an imitation of nature.")
 - Mention of "The 2017 NJCL Convention" and "Troy University".
- It is RECOMMENDED to include the following in your design:
 - OJCL, either by name or the logo. Email president@ojcl.org to request HQ versions of the logos.
 - JCL/Classics-related images.

Submission:

Each design must be made on CustomInk.com using provided clip art on the site and/or electronically created materials (e.g. elements made in Adobe Illustrator). After saving your design, send the link to the t-shirt to Treasurer Grant Bruner at treasurer@ojcl.org by 11:59 PM on June 20 2017.

Selection:

All submitted designs will be reviewed and then voted on by the OJCL Executive Board. The winner will be notified if their design has won by the end of June! The winner wins a free spirit bag, AND a shout-out on our Instagram and Twitter.
