

My name is John Swansinger and this year I am going to run for president of the OJCL for the 2018 Latin Convention. Look I know I am inexperienced and have only begun to learn Latin 2 years ago, but for my lack in experience I make up for in passion and devotion to the Latin language and culture. As FDR once said "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." So if that is the case why should you be afraid of my lack of experience. But it is good to note that I have experience outside of the OJCL. I am student council vice president of my class at St. Edward High School. Along with that I have been to the nations of the Dominican Republic, Canada, Mexico, France, the U.K., Ireland, and Spain. Also much closer to home I have been a chairman in Model UN at our Cleveland International Model United Nations Conference and was chosen to represent my school at the Hoby Leadership Convention at Ohio Northern University. Look I know I'm an outsider but as a Christian I have no duty to allow us to keep the presidency in the hands of those currently in positions of leadership, but I have the duty to be a fighter for the greatness of the next Latin Convention. Finally, I leave you with a quote from a great man who once said, "Leadership is action, not postion!" Thank you and vote John Swansinger for OJCL President for next year.
