

Ohio Junior Classical League Speech Contest

Ever wanted to give a speech at Convention? This year, the OJCL Speech Contest will give one delegate the opportunity to deliver the opening remarks of the final GA!

To be eligible to participate, one must be attending convention, must be an OJCL member in good standing, must NOT be running for state office, and must NOT be introducing a candidate for state office.

Deadline: 11:59, Sunday February 11, 2018

Elements to Consider:

Length: 2-3 minutes in length, no longer than 3

Presentation: Contestant should have good eye contact, body language, and pace.

Personality: Contestants are encouraged to make their speech humorous and engaging for the audience.

Content: The speech must be relevant to the JCL, Classics, or the convention theme.

Submission:

1. Save typed speech as a PDF file.
2. Upload a 30 second Youtube video of yourself presenting the speech (this does not need to be memorized for the video - we'd like to see your speaking style).
3. Send both the PDF and Youtube link to vpres1@ojcl.org.
4. Title the email "OJCL Speech Contest- [First Name Last Name]" (ex. OJCL Speech Contest - Caroline Klette).

The winner will be notified by February 16, 2018 via email. Any questions can be emailed to vpres1@ojcl.org.
