THE STUDENT COMMITMENT

We are Xavier Musketeers.

We are unique individuals who come together in the spirit of St. Ignatius, to learn together, to serve together and we will succeed in changing the world together.

We act with integrity, justice and generosity.

ALL FOR ONE AND ONE FOR ALL.

THE XAVIER WAY

OUR MISSION

As a Jesuit Catholic university, we're called to a higher standard—to make a lasting, positive impact on the lives of those around us. The Xavier story is about being part of something larger than one's self. It's about an institutional commitment and culture to serve others and contribute to the greater good. At Xavier, we've been changing lives since 1831. We offer nothing less than a better education for a better world.

OUR METHOD

The Jesuit tradition calls for the education of the whole person, the importance of critical thinking, a commitment to social justice and adherence to the highest standards of scholarship and ethics. We deliver on that promise with a degree of individual attention that large public universities cannot match, academic programs that consistently earn high national rankings, a graduation rate that is No. 1 in the Midwest, and some of the country's best rates for job and graduate school placements.

OUR HONORS

- Ranked 4th in the Midwest among 108 top regional universities for 2014: U.S. News & World Report
- Ranked 237 among America's finest schools and 48 in the Midwest: Forbes Magazine
- Named one of 100 "Best Value" universities in the country: Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine
- Eight graduate programs are ranked among the best by U.S. News & World Report, including MBA and Health Services Administration.

ALL FOR ONE

OUR CAMPUS

Stroll the Xavier campus and you'll discover a blend of castle-like fortresses with a stunning flourish of gleaming contemporary spaces. Collectively, it's all designed for a single purpose: the academic and social education of our students. Architecturally, it's a fascinating collection of spaces and places worthy of a second look. Here's some of what you can find:

- The oldest building on campus Hinkle Hall (circa 1919), is a three-story Tudor-Gothic structure with turrets modeled after the Xavier family castle in Navarre, Spain.
- Alter Hall is the main classroom building on campus and undergoing an extensive renovtion designed to improve learning. When completed in 2015, it will feature high-tech classrooms, match the architectural style of the other buildings along the Academic Mall and support Xavier's commitment to sustainable environments.
- Medieval gargoyles adorn Albers Hall.

- Bellarmine Chapel has a striking roof-line in the shape of a hyperbolic paraboloid.
- A 200-pound solid brass perpetual Foucault pendulum swings from the ceiling of Lindner Hall, the physics building located along "Science Row."
- Xavier built Bishop Fenwick Place, a 245,000-square-foot apartment complex, in 2010 so students could live at the heart of campus.
- The Hoff Dining Commons not only keeps students well fed, but includes a green roof for sustainability.
- The Gallagher Student Center includes the bookstore, a food court and space for students to be themselves.
- The high-tech Smith Hall, home of the Williams College of Business, and state-of-the-art Conaton Learning Commons are Xavier's newest buildings.

ONE FOR ALL

OUR STUDENTS

When the Jesuits first started educating people in the 16th century, they had this idea that education should be well-rounded and inspire curiosity. So that if you're studying to be a biochemist, say, you can still talk about literature. And so you're no stranger to philosophy, even if business is more your bag. Today, that concept still works at Xavier—the sixth-oldest Catholic university in America.

Our students—each an individual within this overall enterprise we call Xavier—pull together their collective experiences and push the University to ever-growing heights.
