Letter from OJCL President Joseph Delamerced, Summit Country Day

My fellow Classicists,

Welcome to the 68th Annual Convention of the Ohio Junior Classical League. My name is Joseph Delamerced from Summit Country Day, and I currently serve as your OJCL President. I hope this weekend is one to remember! I can certainly attest that my first convention was full of laughter and fun. We have an incredible talent show, exhilarating matches of Certamen, fantastic colloquia, awesome out-of-state guests, and most importantly, there are so many amazing people here.

You're going to hear that often from the veteran JCLers. The people here are so friendly—no, seriously! Go ahead and strike up a conversation with anyone about anything. Discuss why your March Madness bracket, which has Cincinnati going all the way, will be perfect. Ask someone about Star Wars: The Last Jedi and the crazy twists and turns (except for me—I have too many opinions about it). Talk to people about why our Latin textbooks teach us far too many words about stabbing Caesar or falling into ditches.

But, I know what you're thinking: That's way too hard, and I'm already in this bed, and I'm super comfortable. Well, like our theme "Audentes Fortuna Iuvat" suggests, if you're not brave and don't go out, you won't get the full convention experience if you stay in your room for the whole weekend. There's so much to do this weekend, so take advantage of the opportunities you have! Meet new friends, take part in as many contests as possible, help out in our service project, go nuts and cheer as loud as you can in spirit.

Being here this weekend has given you a unique chance to experience something incredible. Have fun, do as much as you can, and remember: be bold.

Pax,

Joseph Delamerced

OJCL President

Convention Rules

Each Student is expected to conduct his/her self in a mature and responsible manner during Convention. The first person who is responsible for your conduct is you. Everyone is encouraged to have a good time and enjoy the experience, so we ask that you refrain from behavior that will prevent others around you from enjoying their time at Convention too! Simply said, attendance is a privilege, not a right. In extreme cases, if an individual's or group's behavior is deemed to be unacceptable, OJCL reserves the right to require that the offender(s) return home at their own expense.

Rules and expectations that each Convention Attendee shall observe:

1. Curfew for Student Delegates is 12:30 A.M. and may be enforced by ANY Sponsor, Chaperone, or Hotel Staff Member. All Students (except Executive Board Officers) shall be in - and stay in - their respective assigned rooms after that time.
2. Delegates are not permitted to change rooms without the prior consent of BOTH their Sponsor and the State Chair whose duties include coordination of Convention and Hotel issues.
3. Delegates are reminded that ALL Sponsors, SCLers, and Chaperones serve as monitors during the Convention on behalf of OJCL and each Delegate shall show respect for them and comply with their instructions.
4. Behavior that disturbs other guests will not be tolerated. Delegates should remember that they are representing the OJCL, their school, and themselves.
5. Use or possession by any Convention Delegate of alcohol or illegal drugs is prohibited. There shall be no smoking by Student Delegates during Convention.
6. Any illegal activity, including gambling, lotteries, betting activities for profit, or other activity in violation of Local, State, or Federal Laws, will be reported to the local Authorities and School Officials.
7. During the testing sessions, you may not sit adjacent to anyone from your same school.
8. Students will not misuse the elevators with overcrowding, continuous riding, playing, etc.
9. General Assembly Attendance is mandatory for ALL Delegates, including commuters, unless otherwise indicated in the Program.
10. Only persons attending Convention may participate in contests or Convention activities of any kind.
11. Lanyards with nametags issued at registration shall be worn around the neck at all times.
12. No student is permitted to leave the hotel during convention.
13. Neat school clothes are appropriate attire for everyone. Classical costumes are required for the Roman Banquet. Dressing in hotel sheets is NOT permitted.
14. Any missing or damaged property will be charged to your school and ultimately to you. Any additional charges to your room will be charged to your school.
15. The OJCL reserves the right to review any and all campaign material prior to its being displayed. Inappropriate or slanderous materials will not be permitted.
16. Officers and those assisting the OJCL Officers are not responsible for actions of the participating delegates and are not responsible for damages related to those actions by participating attendees. Payment of Convention Fees is acknowledgment of acceptance and understanding of these rules by each participating delegate and constitutes a waiver of claim against the Organization and its Officers including State Chairs and their appointed assistants.

Junior Classical League Creed

We the members of the Junior Classical League, covenant to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world.

We believe an acquaintance with the civilization of Greece and Rome will help us understand and appraise this world of today,

Which is indebted to the ancient civilization in its government and laws, literature, language and arts.

We affirm the JCL experience develops responsibility, fosters brotherhood, promotes enthusiasm, encourages competition, inspires dedication and enriches our total growth.

Junior Classical League Song

*Dave Clements, Max Spires, Mrs. R. G. Frazier
Revised by Mrs. B. H. Norveson*

Seeking the best, the highest our goal
Working for greatness through glories of old.

Searching the realms of the golden past,
We follow the classics' truths that last

In knowledge, truth, and fellowship, we're growing everyday
The friendly hand of J. C. L. aids in every way.

In Rome's proud steps we're marching on,
with every true colleague,

And forever we'll hold to the Purple and Gold,
of the Junior Classical League.

OJCL

Pledge of Allegiance (Latin)

Fidem meam obligo
vexillo civitatum
Americae foederatarum et rei publicae pro qua stat
uni natione deo ducente non dividendae
cum libertate iustitiaque omnibus

Pledge of Allegiance (Greek)

Δεσμεύομαι υποταγή στη σημαία των Ηνωμένων Πολιτειών της Αμερικής, καθώς και για τη Δημοκρατία, για τα οποία έχει, ένα έθνος κάτω από το Θεό, αδιαίρετο, με ελευθερία και δικαιοσύνη για όλους.

Colloquia

Be Like Penelope: Weave on a Loom!

Presented by Mrs. Sasha Parks (formerly of McAuley)

Learn to assemble, warp, and weave on a warp-weighted loom - the same kind that was used from the Bronze Age through the Classical Period. We will have fun building an important piece of technology, and you will get a taste of what it was like to make cloth in Ancient Greece. Warp-weighted looms are pictured on many pieces of pottery and featured in Penelope's role in The Odyssey. Come see how they work!

Kahoot! JCL Trivia

Presented by The OJCL Board

You may know Certamen as the Jeopardy!-style game on all aspects of the classical world. This is not that game. While there will be some general questions related to the Classics, your senior officers (both OJCL and NJCL!) will host a game revolving around JCL-related trivia as well.

“Save the Emperor” Breakout Game

Presented by Marcie Handler (Seven Hills) and Katie Swinford (Seven Hills)

You are members of the Praetorian Guard, an elite group of soldiers who serve as protectors to the Emperor and, as such, hold the fate of the Roman Empire in your hands. A mysterious threat has been made against the emperor’s life, and to ensure his safety and the future of the empire, you must follow a trail of clues, which have accidentally been left to find the enemy’s battle plans. If you are able to foil the plot before the belligerents arrive, you can protect your leader and successfully return to the time of the Pax Romana.

3rd Place 2017 Lower Level cartoon by Connie Nelson, Summit

Roman Armor

Presented by Mr. Greg Stemm (St. Edward)

Come learn about ancient armor! There will be several different styles - leather armor, chain mail, and scale mail - to see and try on. There will be discussions about the styles and purposes of different forms of armor, along with how they were made. Finally, there will be a workshop where participants can make a small piece of chain mail to keep, much like the pendant shown here.

Frescos: Learn, then Make!

Presented by 2nd Vice President Aquila Simmons, Wellington

Learn about ancient frescoes, then make one yourself! 2nd Vice President Aquila Simmons from Wellington will teach you about ancient frescoes and help you to create your own 'magnum opus'.

Dining

Breakfast Buffet on Saturday and Sunday from 7:00AM-1:00 PM

Jason's OJCL Weekend Scavenger Extravaganza

A picture is worth a thousand words. This weekend, as you thrive amongst other classicists at the OJCL Convention, I encourage you to take as many pictures as you can so that hopefully, in a few days or few years, when you reminisce on all the goofy pictures you took, you can associate even better memories with them. So, I challenge and present to you, Jason's OJCL Weekend Scavenger Extravaganza. The objective is to take a picture with each of the 15 people below. At the end of convention, if you can present all 15 pictures to our OJCL President Joseph Delamcered, you will be rewarded with a fabulous prize. So like in Ecce Romani, which says, "In pictura est puella, nomine Cornelia", go out and take pictures with other JCLers, and maybe you too in the future, can say, In pictura est novus amicus mihi.
