2020 Classical Literacy Exam

The Classical Literacy Exam is given to Latin students in May. Only the 6th grade and a few US students participated this year because of the reduced curriculum during remote learning. This competition measures basic knowledge of all aspects of Greek and Roman civilizations, including vocabulary, expressions, mythology, history, culture, quotes, and geography. The 6th grade list has over 100 terms, including quid pro quo, the face that launched 1000 ships, and narcissistic.

Achilles' heel today means a weakness. Achilles was the greatest warrior who fought in the Trojan War. His mother, the goddess Thetis, wanted him to live forever, so she dipped her infant Achilles in the river Styx, but the magical waters did not touch the heel by which she held him. It was his one vulnerable spot, and he was killed by an arrow shot into his heel.

2019 NJCL CONVENTION

11 Summit Latin students, 2 teachers, and 1 Summit alumnus attended the 2019 National Junior Classical League (NJCL) Convention at North Dakota State University from July 25 to July 31. The NJCL is a youth organization which promotes the study of Latin in secondary schools. There are 33,299 NJCL members in 1,130 schools throughout the country. Some of these schools are 'Century Clubs' which have over 100 members, and Summit is part of this select group with 107 members. The summer convention is a week-long 'academic village' with over 1,400 students, teachers, adult chaperones, and college helpers. It has a variety of activities, including tests, a Jeopardy-style game called Certamen, performance arts, graphic arts, colloquia, spirit contests, sports, and social activities.

There are a number of leadership opportunities available for NJCL members, and Summit has had teachers and students in positions of leadership for 21 consecutive years.

- Ryan Burns is the OJCL President. He is the leader of the OH delegation, runs all the state meetings, and supervises all the state activities. This is the 6th time that the President has been a Summit Latin student.
- Julia Dean (2019 alumna who will be attending the University of Cincinnati) is the Parliamentarian of the Ohio Senior Classical League, the college organization which assists the NJCL at its conventions. She is in charge of elections. This is her 4th year of leadership in the JCL.
- Tullus Dean (2017 alumnus and Xavier University student) is the President of the OSCL. He oversees all the activities of the college students as they help to run the state and national conventions. This is his 5th year of leadership in the JCL.
- Latin teacher Larry Dean has served for 20 years as the OJCL Certamen Coach. Certamen is a Jeopardy!-style academic competition with questions about the Latin language and classical civilization. The OH Intermediate certamen team advanced to the Semi-Finals this year.

- Latin teacher Lisa Mays is in her 2nd year of a 3-year tenure as the OJCL Chair of Students. Lisa serves as a mentor to all the student members of the Executive Board and oversees all the activities of the OJCL.

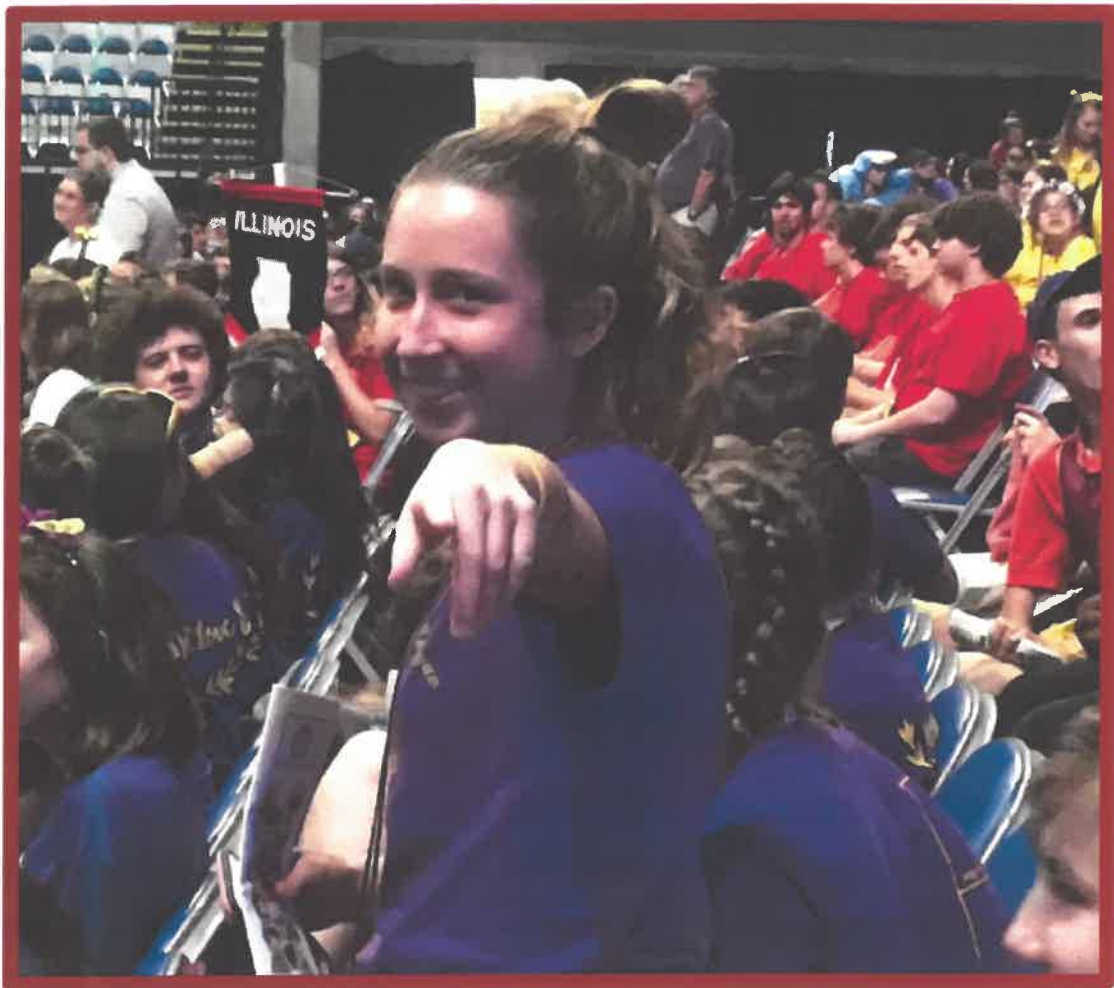

Here are some of the highlights of the convention:

- Irene Calderon, Jimmy Fraley, and Kendall Richard were members of the OH Intermediate Certamen team which qualified for the Semi-Finals and finished 8th in the nation.
- 2 Summit students were recognized at the General Assembly on Thursday for their performance on the National Latin Exam in March. Ryan Burns and Irene Calderon scored a Perfect Exam, an accomplishment achieved by less than 1% of students. Ryan was also honored for his continued excellence on the NLE, with 4 consecutive Gold Medals.
- Julia Dean won an NJCL Scholarship worth $4,000. These scholarships are presented to students who have demonstrated excellence in the classroom and dedication to the NJCL.
- Kendall Richard won a Best of Show Award for her bead mosaic of Echo and Narcissus. There were only 5 graphic arts projects selected to earn the coveted Best of Show!

2020 National Mythology Exam

This was the 31st year of the National Mythology Exam. It was taken in February by over 9,000 students from 400 schools in the United States, Canada, and Australia. The goal of the exam is to promote the study of classical mythology and literature in secondary schools. It has 40 (for the 6th grade) or 50 (for the 7th and 8th grades) or 60 (for 9th-12th grades) multiple choice questions. This year's exam had 3 sections:

- the main classical gods & goddesses - Zeus, Athena, Mars, etc
- the story of Perseus – a son of Zeus who is famous for beheading the snaky-haired Gorgon Medusa
- Book 12 of Homer's Odyssey – Odysseus encounters the Sirens, Scylla & Charybdis, and the island of the Sun-god Helios

Medusa's gaze turned people to stone, Midas' touch turned things to gold!

Here are some quotes from the student essays for the LHS about their Summit Latin experience:

- Latin is one of my favorite classes because of all the fun opportunities like Latin club and the various conventions. As one of my projects for State convention, I had the opportunity to write, direct and star in a movie!
- I am very curious about Latin, and there is always something new to learn.
- Throughout the year, I have strived for excellence in the Latin program. I come to class prepared every day and am always well prepared for quizzes and tests.
- I should be considered for membership into LHS because I am passionate about Latin, especially Roman/Greek mythology and I am very eager to continue learning next year at the AP level.
- I have maintained a straight A average throughout the school year and have tried hard to study and prepare for all my tests. I got a perfect on the Mythology Exam as well as a gold on the NLE. I hope to continue Latin through high school and am hoping to go to national convention.
- During my time at home I have been watching Darius Arya's webinars. So far, I have watched the Plagues Seminar and the Rise of Christianity Seminar I earned an A+ the first semester of Latin and my final grade was an A- with the semester exam.
- I attended weekly Latin after-school study sessions in order to not only improve my Latin but to help other students as well.
- Latin is a huge part of my life and I'm so happy to be in the JCL. This past week I participated in the NJCL Kahoot game and have talked with many friends from other schools and states that I have met through the JCL.
