

Hi everyone!

It's Alan, former OJCLer, Certamen player, and current OSCLer. This year, I'm taking over Certamen coaching for Ohio, and I'm excited to announce the Ohio Summer Certamen Camp (OSCC), a free, virtual summer program offering Certamen coaching and tryouts for Nationals. I encourage any interested students in attending, regardless of prior Certamen experience. Even if you aren't interested in playing Certamen, this program will still cover a lot of classics-related subjects, so it would be enriching nonetheless. Practices will take place on each weekday for different Certamen categories, and, each Saturday, a whole team practice will take place. Any and all of these are optional, so you can control your commitment to the program.

You can read more about the program

You can register for the program

Even if you do not register, you are encouraged to come to our introductory meeting on Sunday, June 6th at 2 PM ET at this Zoom link: <https://northeastern.zoom.us/j/91463369235>

I hope this program is exciting for everyone and, please, if you feel even an inkling of interest, you should register! You can always withdraw from the program if you do not find it suitable for you, and, again, this functions as the tryout system for Nationals, so anyone who wants to play Certamen at NJCL Convention for Ohio is STRONGLY encouraged to participate! Let me know if you have any questions by emailing me at zhangalan2020@gmail.com and have a nice day!

Alan
