2025 Classical Literacy Exam

The Classical Literacy Exam is given to all Latin students in May. This competition measures basic knowledge of all aspects of Greek and Roman civilizations, including vocabulary, expressions, mythology, history, culture, quotes, and geography. The various lists include terms like:

- quid pro quo (literally 'what for what,' now it means a trade or exchange)
- sowing dragon's teeth (when the Greek hero Jason did this in his quest for the Golden Fleece, armed warriors sprang up; it now means doing something that will cause great harm)
- de jure (literally 'from the law,' it now means sanctioned by law; e.g., apartheid in South Africa was de jure segregation of the races)
- protean (readily taking on different shapes, forms, or meanings; able to change quickly; the English word protean comes from Proteus, a sea god who could change his shape at will)

This is Oedipus solving the riddle of the Sphinx (What walks on 4 legs in the morning, 2 legs at midday, and 3 legs in the evening? answer: a human). Oedipus also had the unfortunate fate of killing his father and later marrying his mother, and his name was used by Freud for the Oedipus complex.

2024 National Junior Classical League Convention

Five Summit students attended the National Junior Classical League convention from July 21st – 27th on campus at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, TN. Hana Conte '26, Tyler Gier '28, Kori McLane '25, Ben Hofmann '28 and Manuel Cantillo '28 competed against other Latin and Greek students from around the country in Creative Arts, Graphic Arts, Academic Tests, Athletics and Certamen.

Tyler excelled athletically during the week, placing 2nd in the 50-yd breaststroke. This placed him 25th in Olympika points and 47th in Overall Sweepstakes. Manuel also participated enthusiastically in the athletic competitions, running in the Track & Field Olympika. He cheered loudly for Ohio during the spirit competitions each day, contributing to Ohio's #1 finish in spirit for the week. Manuel also competed on Ohio's Novice certamen team, facing tough opponents from other states and narrowly missing the semi-final round.

Ben made up the other half of the Novice certamen team, performing his duties as team captain with aplomb. Ben's Latin skills were not confined to the certamen rooms, however, as he placed well on the numerous academic tests. He placed 4th in Latin Vocabulary, 4th in Reading Comprehension, 9th on the Academic Triathlon, 9th in Latin Grammar, 10th in Latin Derivatives, 12th in Mottoes, 12th in Mythology, 13th in Roman History, and 15th in Ancient Geography, all at Level I. Impressively, Ben placed 35th on the Academic Decathlon, a prestigious test for the Upper Level students designed to find the best all-around Latin student at the convention and comes with a $500 cash prize. Ben's work placed him 30th in Academics at the convention. Ben also competed in the Olympika, with his 1st place finish in the 100 meter, 2nd place finish in the 200 meter, and 3rd place finishes in the 800 meter and Marathon contributing to his 14th place finish in Olympika. All of these points combined to place Ben 32nd in Overall Sweepstakes out of all 1000 students competing at the convention.

Appointed Historian of the OJCL in April, Kori documented the goings on of the students during the convention. Kori also played an integral role in leading the Ohio delegation as the OJCL President was unable to attend. Kori and the other officers recapped each day's events and encouraged the delegates to try new activities throughout the week. Impressively, Kori still found time to score points while performing OJCL board duties! In Academics: 13th in Reading Comprehension: Poetry and 15th in Classical Art, both at Level IV. In Graphic Arts, Kori's Black Pencil and Mixed Media each placed 2nd, Chalk/Pastel 3rd, Ink 5th, Charcoal 6th, Colored Pencil 6th, and Watercolor 8th. All of this added up to Kori placing 15th in Overall Graphic Arts points and finishing 39th in Overall Sweepstakes.

Hana also had a busy week at convention. She was elected 2nd Vice-President at the state convention in March and worked with Kori and the other board members to lead Ohio students through the week. Hana had just finished her term as OJCL Editor and her work on our state publication throughout the year earned the Torch: Ohio a 5th place finish! In Academics, Hana placed 2nd on Latin Vocabulary and 3rd on Mythology, both at Level III. Hana also finished 8th in the very competitive Impromptu Art competition and received a standing ovation for her amazing vocal performance of "Lost in the Brass" from the musical Band Geeks at the convention talent show, That's Entertainment. As Ohio is hosting next summer's national convention, Hana was also asked to deliver the closing remarks at the final General Assembly to close the convention. Addressing the 1200 plus attendees, Hana shared the impact of our recent Summit trip to Italy and Greece on her understanding of the ancient world and expressed her appreciation and hopes for the students of the NJCL and their continued growth and fellowship within the organization.

Also in attendance was alumnus Wali Khan '23. Having previously served a term as Parliamentarian of the OJCL, Wali was elected NSCL Parliamentarian at last summer's convention. He completed the duties of his office over the course of the year, which culminated with him running the elections for the college-level students of the organization.

MS/US Latin and Greek teacher Lisa Mays '05 continued to serve in her capacity as OJCL State Chair of Students, advising the OJCL board as they led the Ohio delegation through the various activities and competitions during the week.

2025 NJCL Latin/Greek Honor Society

The Latin/Greek Honor Society is an honorary organization for students who have exhibited excellence in the study of the Latin/Greek language. Students in the Latin Honor Society must:

- ✓ maintain an "A" average in Latin
- ✓ demonstrate dedication and enthusiasm for the language
- ✓ submit a short essay for the LHS application

Here are some quotes from the student essays for the LHS about their Summit Latin experience:

- In class I am eager to learn and am diligent taking notes. I take in everything that I learn and relate it to real life.
- I went to both service events and helped out with our Latin group. I enjoy being part of a team and doing things that help the team succeed.
- Hopefully, next year I will be able to go to the Latin Convention because I would really like to have that experience.
- I recently attended Latin Convention and had a wonderful time. It completely drew me into the language even further. I am planning on attending the National Convention as well.
- Learning about all the English derivatives has advanced my vocabulary and has made reading and writing easier.
- Studying people who lived in the ancient world has helped my understanding of humans and society now.
- I appreciate all the memories, challenges, and friendships I have gained from my time in the Latin program and JCL. I cannot imagine going through high school without it.
- I enjoy taking Latin because it is unique from other languages in that the focus is not solely on the language but also on the history, culture, and mythology of ancient Rome.
